

SUBMIT WAR BOND ISSUE BILL TODAY

KITCHIN MAKES OPENING STATEMENT URGING $7,000,000,000 WAR REVENUE MEASUREMENT.

NAVY TO PATROL COAST

Secretary Daniels Confers With Entente Naval Officers Regarding American Navy's Co-operation in War.

Washington, April 13.—The first of the war measures actually came up in congress today when the house took up for passage the bill to authorize an issue of five billion dollars in bonds and two billion in treasury certificates. Democratic Leader Kitchin took charge of the measure on the floor and there appeared to be no opposition. There was no attempt to limit debate, but the leaders were desirous of getting the bill passed before adjournment, so it could be hurried over to the senate.

Applause greeted Representative Kitchin when he began his opening statement in behalf of the $7,000,000,000 war revenue measure. It was anticipated that the bill would pass without much deliberation. Power for the president to order railway officials to operate any part of their rolling stock during war times as he may see fit without actually taking over the railroads, was reintroduced in amended form today by Chairman Adamson.

Discuss Navy's Co-operation. New impetus was given plans for naval co-operation between the United States and the entente nations today by conference between Secretary Daniels and American naval officers, and Vice Admiral M. E. Browning of the British navy, and Rear Admiral R. A. Grasset of the French navy. An agreement was reached to undertake the patrol of the entire Atlantic coast from Panama northward, possibly including Canada.

U. S. SHOULD HAVE HEALTHY SOLDIERS

London, April 13.—The American soldier ought to be the healthiest soldier in the world, because he stands out backed by medical organizations which have been given all the lessons learned by the British army in its three years' experience in its greatest war.

A statement, made by Sir Alfred Keogh, surgeon general of the British army to an Associated Press representative, revealed for the first time the co-operation between the medical organizations of the American and British armies have maintained since the early days of the war. For this, the American people must thank Sir Alfred, who said, there are in this country four leading United States army medical men, who have been studying the British medical and sanitary army organization in France, and who have studied the royal army medical corps at home.

WEST FRONT DRIVE STILL GOES FORWARD

Paris, April 13.—The French made gains on a wide front, after severe fighting, the war office announced. The front attack extended from a point north of Metz to the village of Metz-en-Courture.

Drive Gains at Metz. With the British Army at Front, via London, by Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press, April 13.—Under improved conditions, the work of the British army in the west has been making progress. Further north, another mile of the Hindenburg line has been taken, as shown by last night's official communication. In taking back the Germans are making to the auxiliary line, the work is far from complete, and the Germans seem to have no idea of giving it except as a last resort. They are now fighting in order to make the position defensible. On retiring from the Somme last month the Germans expected to hold all the line in front of Cambrai and through St. Quentin.

French Take Trenches. Paris, April 13.—The French made an attack this morning on the front of St. Quentin. Today's official statement says the Germans resisted desperately, but the French captured several lines of trenches, taking prisoners and a number of machine guns.

GOETHALS ACCEPTS SHIP BUILDING JOB

Washington, April 13.—Major General George Goethals will accept to President Wilson's request that he take general charge of the construction of wooden ships to carry supplies to the entente allies.

PLAN TO RECOGNIZE CIVILIAN SERVICE PRESENTED IN BILL

Madison, Wis., April 13.—Wisconsin may pass legislation to honor her civilian soldiers. The nations of Europe have discovered in the waging of the war up to this time that there are many opportunities for patriotic service outside of the military organizations which can be utilized by civilians. The bill provides that the military organizations which can be utilized by civilians could be rendered by those who are fighting the nation's battles.

A bill will be introduced in the senate, within the next few days, by Senator Roy P. Wilcox of Eau Claire, which will provide in substance: That the state council of defense shall make a roster of all the persons in the state who are disqualified through physical or other cause, or otherwise exempt from military service, but who are more especially qualified to render service to the state and who have offered their services to the council and other services during the war. The bill will provide that the defense council may make suitable classifications for services and which enrollment may be had, and which respect thereto and the enrollment therein.

Each person enrolling, under the provisions of the act, shall be provided with a patriotic badge, button or other insignia indicating the particular character of the service for which he is enrolled. The roster shall be preserved by the council for defense during the war and thereafter in the office of the secretary of state. Persons so enrolled may be assigned, by the state council for defense, to any branch of the service or to the performance of such duties as might be required in the interests of the state and the nation in time of war.

Senator Wilcox in an interview today said: "The purpose of the bill is to provide a method by which those loyal and patriotic citizens, who are in any way disqualified or disabled from military service, may be given suitable recognition for their service to the state. Many a man bears the loss of a finger, or the sight of an eye, or the loss of some other physical faculty, which will be denied the privilege of carrying a musket in this great battle for humanity. Yet these men are as patriotic as any soldier. I believe that the provisions of this bill are efficient waging of the war, as if he were fighting as a soldier. I believe that the provisions of this bill are efficient waging of the war, as if he were fighting as a soldier. I believe that the provisions of this bill are efficient waging of the war, as if he were fighting as a soldier."

Recruit 4,871 Men For Service in Navy In Past Two Weeks

Washington, April 13.—The tremendous recruiting campaign for the navy is beginning to show results. During the first twelve days of April a net gain of 4,871 men for the regular service was reported. There has been a steady increase in daily average of applicants. The total enlisted strength now is approaching the 100,000 mark. President Wilson already has authorized recruitment of 87,000, and the maximum allowed by law. Pending legislation will provide for a total force of 197,000, including the coast defense reserve, the only present volunteer element.

CHANCE OF SEPARATE PEACE WITH RUSSIA TALKED IN GERMANY

Amsterdam, via London, April 13.—The Berlin Vorwaerts, commenting on the program of the Russian provision of the present war, says: "The account between Austria, Germany and Russia can be settled on the basis of a program drafted by the Russian government without shedding more blood. Neither Germany nor Austria intend to sacrifice any portion of the occupied territory. The Russian manifesto shows the strength of the Russian current, and the same direction will be very great. To meet them is the duty of the German government."

PLAN FUNDS TO AID SOLDIERS' FAMILIES

New York, April 13.—Leading American manufacturers are seeking to discover the wisest and most patriotic way of dealing with problems of industrial payrolls during war time and providing for dependent families of men who enlist.

A definite effort is to be made, it was learned today, to set up a government fund for dependent families of volunteers on similar basis to that of a national patriotic fund which was adopted by the governments of Great Britain and Canada, and the creation of a national patriotic fund will be urged to be handled by the American Red Cross, assisted by charity organizations and local commercial organizations in matters of necessary investigation.

U. S. WAR STRENGTH NO SLIGHT FACTOR SAYS BERLIN CRITIC

Amsterdam, April 13.—Captain Perseus, writing in the Berlin Tageblatt, says: "It would be a fatal mistake to regard America's economic strength as the only important factor for an enemy. The military strength of the United States is not to be met with a shrug of the shoulders, otherwise we shall make the same mistake as we did about the military strength of Britain." Hoetsch, prominent political writer, says in the Kreuz Zeitung: "Germany, in all her straining to avoid a German-American conflict, played into the hands of our opponents. The German embassy in Washington should be blamed for this. It was the weakest spot in the whole diplomatic machine. The Kaiser made every effort to hold American friendship. We cannot blame it because America is against us, but we do blame the German-Americans."

Swiss Critic's View. Bern, via Paris, April 13.—The military critic of the Berner Nachrichten believes that the entrance into the war of the powerful American fleet will sooner or later lead to a revival of an aggressive policy against Germany, which will probably culminate in a Germanic battle which will put the Dardanelles fight in the shade. This observer further believes if America furthers attempts to transport troops to Europe, Germany will mass all available U-boats against the American transports. He is dubious of the present value of America as a factor in the war, but admits the United States has fifteen million men of military age whom it can equip and arm, and the entrance of such an ally would prove the decisive factor in the war.

Lloyd George Welcomes U. S. London, April 13.—A first British printing to salute the American nation as a comrade in arms. David Lloyd George, England's democratic leader, speaking before the American Luncheon club on Thursday aroused intense enthusiasm by the scathing denunciation of Prussia and the welcome of America as an ally in the war. "The advent of the United States into the war," he said, "is the final stamp of victory on the final struggle against military autocracy throughout the world."

WAR'S EFFECT ON CHILDREN IS VITAL

Washington, April 13.—Lessons drawn from the war's effect upon European children should be carefully considered with a view to preventing similar harm to children in this country, according to a statement today by the federal children's bureau. Reports from warring countries show, it is stated, that juvenile delinquency has increased, more children have been employed under adverse conditions, special measures have been necessary to protect the health of mother and babies, and home placement of mothers. These facts, the bureau says, emphasized the importance of strict enforcement of all child labor and school attendance laws and welfare work.

Regulations governing the movements of vessels in these waters and the appearance of vessels in these waters and the order concludes with this statement: "The responsibility of the United States for any damage to the object of force of arms with the object of defense of any persons or vessels proceeding in convention of regulations duly promulgated in accordance with this executive order shall cease from this date (April 13)."

GOVERNOR INSISTS THAT LEGISLATURE SPEED UP SESSION

Madison, Wis., April 13.—Obedient to a mandate that has gone out from the executive office, the work of the legislature has been shifted to high speed with a view of bringing final adjournment on May 15, or who have the latest session. A conference with the governor the past few days on the situation, are of the opinion that the work can be concluded on May 15. The legislature is being urged to speed up its work.

More bills have been reported back to the houses in the last twenty-four hours than in a week of previous sessions. The work of the committees is being speeded up, and from present indications all changes in legislation are being hurried through. It is indicated by the governor in which the legislature has reported in all bills changing the labor laws and all measures affecting primary election.

While the appropriation measures are yet to be considered, it is anticipated that these can be gotten out of the way within ten days after they have been reported. The present plan is to report the normal and university appropriation bills in within the next ten days. The normal appropriation measures out of the way, it may be possible to bring about a final adjournment of the legislature some time during May. The legislature has been stated for hearing before the assembly committee on education on Wednesday. It seems probable that the Elyria liquor referendum bill will be given a hearing at the same time. Affairs. A senate committee on state affairs, after the session, is planned to hold all of the work of the legislature in a cleaned up by six or seven sessions. The legislature hopes to bring about a final adjournment by May 15.

FARMERS TO ENLIST FOR WHEAT CROP

APPEAL TO ROCK COUNTY AGRICULTURALISTS TO PLANT AT LEAST ONE ACRE EACH.

SIGN FOR THE WAR

Shortage in Winter Wheat Must Be Made Up By Spring Planting. Many Have Signified Their Intention to do So.

Absolute necessity for the conservation and increasing of the food supply of the United States at the present time comes strikingly home when an appeal comes from Government officials that every farmer in Wisconsin plant at least one acre of wheat for their own consumption. The failure of the winter wheat crop of the north, under the most adverse weather conditions, indicates a shortage of some 52,000,000 bushels. This must be made up and hence the appeal for acreage.

Acting on the suggestion of Governor Philipp and Speaker L. C. Wallcut of the state legislature, the Gazette urges the cooperation of agriculturalists of the county with ready promise of the act or most as published as a nucleus of the organization of loyal citizens who will enter for the war against the common enemy.

To further this action, fearful there may be a shortage of wheat seed, the Gazette has made arrangements with the P. Norwest branch of the state department of agriculture, to obtain sufficient seed for all who desire it at cost price. Golden seed, of standard quality, will be available and the amount of seed needed can order through the Gazette and have the seed shipped directly to them.

This is the first step in national conservation of food supplies and the necessity of the warning issued should be heeded. The farmer who will plant one acre or more of wheat seed, this spring will telephone, or notify the Gazette, their name will be placed on the roll of the state. The state is not only a military service, but a more so, in fact, that Rock county is taking the lead, as it always does in every act of state importance.

ENLISTMENT ONLY FOR DURATION OF WAR IS NEW ORDER

Recruits Who Have Enlisted Since Declaration of War Need Serve Only During Emergency.

Provision for the discharge of all who enlist at this time from active service at the end of the war is made in an order sent out yesterday from the war department. It is expected that this order will do more to increase enlistments than anything else could at present. There are many young men who are willing to volunteer for the duration of the war, but who do not care to be tied up in the army for three years at the sacrifice of their own business. This war department order makes it possible for these men to answer the call to the colors now.

A telegram from Washington received at all the government recruiting stations contains the order: "It is the policy of the war department to discharge from service at the termination of the emergency all men who have enlisted in the regular army since the declaration of war, or who now enlist. This policy also applies to the National Guard."

Recruiting in the Second Separate company took a big jump yesterday when the enlistment of five Evansville men and two from Brookings was secured. Bringing the total enrollment up to 100. (Four short of the number authorized by the adjutant general at the opening of the present recruiting campaign.) The publication of the war department's order boosted enlistments materially and the local militia likely to be organized in three years of service has been the chief cause of hesitancy on the part of Janesville's youths, and the subject of many questions from applicants at the local armory.

This evening, provided the weather moderates, the entire company will be given another opportunity to watch the drill. The enthusiasm with which over two thousand people swarmed the streets again, and Janesville men and women are expected to get a sight of the company is a foreboding indication of the interest that the city feels in the organization. The drill will be held at the Court House Park, where they will be taught some of the movements of open order drill, as used in modern battle practice.

The state commanders at Madison are busy drafting plans for the future of the state's militia, and the movement of moving are expected almost daily. The Second Separate company must number 105 men, all physically fit. This will require the enlistment of at least twenty more than that number to balance the discharges incurred by the rigorous physical examinations. With the completion of the war, the young men owe it to their country and to the city's fighting unit to respond. Enlist now.

Forward Christianson and Benjamin Johnson, both of Brooklyn, enlisted yesterday, and the following men from Evansville: Clarence Stiff, Alfred Stiff, Max Weaver, Percy Weaver and Daniel S. Williams. Ernest Daetwiler was discharged for desertion, and Roy F. Hawley was discharged by order of the secretary of war.

GETS YEAR IN JAIL FOR DESERTING WIFE

Mike Sharweski's Wages for Next Twelve Months to go to Support of His Family, Wife and Babe.

A warning for others and proof that it doesn't pay for wife and family deserters to practice the disappearance act in the territory within the jurisdiction of Municipal Judge H. Maxfield was conclusively demonstrated in that court this morning.

When Mike Sharweski was brought before the court and had entered his plea of guilty, Judge Maxfield gave him a full year in the county jail.

Sharweski was captured at Racine on the advice of Sheriff J. B. Whipple and yesterday the county police chief brought Sharweski back. This morning he had him in court.

Sharweski is a cigarmaker by trade. Some months ago he deserted his wife and small child. He can now be placed under the commitment statute and his family will be paid his wages throughout the period of his sentence. Other wife deserters who have been brought before the Janesville municipal court have suffered accordingly.

POLICE CLAIM TAILOR WOULD TAKE OWN LIFE

Say Fred Hischke Was Prevented From Act by Men in Saloon—Before Court for Intoxication.

According to the police Fred Hischke, a tailor, bought a revolver and a box of cartridges several days ago and aside from threatening to "kill" himself in the head, he really attempted to make good the threat, but was prevented from doing so in a west side saloon when customers wrested the gun from his hands.

Hischke was in municipal court this morning to answer drunkenness charges. He claimed he didn't know how he got into the saloon, but he threatened to take his own life and as for the purchase of the gun and the bullets, his answers were a puzzle.

Judge Maxfield this morning was evidently in good humor as he let Hischke off with a fine of a dollar and costs or two days in jail. His leniency extended even further, for he gave Thomas Murty a fine of but two dollars and costs.

John Johnson, once a wealthy and prominent farmer, but who has since lost several extensive farms in the richest territories of the county, was given ninety days in the county jail as he has pestered the judge's life for the past several years, as city and local attorney, in his fruitless attempt to procure a wife. Both the judge and the lawyer have been enlisted by him in his search for a better half. To date, however, neither has evidenced any great desire to aid Johnson in his whim for marital fortunes.

MAYOR AT MADISON SPEAKS FOR BILL

Mr. Fathers With Other Municipal Officers of State Appears in Favor of New Highway Law.

Mayor James A. Fathers was at Madison this afternoon to appear and advise with mayors and city attorneys of other Wisconsin cities, members of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities, before the legislature for the Rosa bill relative to the extension of state aid to city highways.

The state among many other important highway extension innovations provides for state aid to cities. It is meant particularly to help municipal paving plans in farm territory adjacent and just within the corporate limits. In this case, the state will stand a portion of the cost, together with the property affected by the improvement.

Considerable interest by Wisconsin cities has been manifested in the measure in its whole for the past and through the co-operation of the cities in the Municipality League of the state an organized movement found birth to advocate the measure when it came to the legislature in proper form.

This year the number of speakers to try out has been expanded to six in the poetry group. From all these the best will be picked for the final contest. A medal is offered in each group.

THE WOODEN WALLS.

"When the foe shall have taken what over the limit of Cerops holds within it; all which divine Citharion shelters, Then far-seen Zeus greets this to prayers of Athene: Safe shall the wooden walls continue for these and thy children. Hail, Salamis. Then shalt destroy the offspring of women, When men scatter seed or when they gather the harvest."

When Xerxes, king of the Medes and Persians, started out with an army of over a million men, he had 283,220, drawn from forty-three different nations, to conquer little Greece, with its few thousands of inhabitants in the year 481 B. C. Victory seemed certain. Greece was a nation of separate kingdoms and but Sparta and Athens remained to oppose the oncoming foe.

Christianity was unknown at this time—not even the doctrine of "Me and God" and the simple Athinians depended upon an oracle at Delphi to tell them what to do. The verse at the top of this article tells you that the oracle told them, and its interpretation, like that of Daniel at the feast of Belshazzar ("Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin"), decided the fate of the invasion and the battle of Salamis and Persians who would have conquered the world like the host of Germans and Austrians would today.

It was Themistocles, the Athenian, who interpreted the oracle and told his fellow citizens to rely upon their triremes, who told them to trust to their wooden ships and with the naval victory at Salamis the strength of the invasion was broken. True, the Spartans at Thermopylae won a partial victory, but it was the wooden walls of Athens that saved Greece from capture and subjection.

Now history repeats itself. Time was when the clipper ships of the United States carried the four seas and the stars and stripes were known in every clime. The war of 1812 saw the privateers, outfitted and manned by private capital, bring in rich prizes, and yet the American flag and the American flag has practically disappeared from the field of commerce.

Its last blow was given when the La Follette seamen's bill was enacted. La Follette, the same man who represents Wisconsin in the United States senate, and voted against the seamen's bill, and against the permit to give President Wilson an opportunity to handle affairs diplomatically, and talked so long and loudly that even the army suffered by lack of appropriation measures.

The same La Follette who voted against the declaration of the rights of Americans and who can be assured that this nation for the war they are now engaged in. The same man who has been busy in a half dozen states, including his own, and for whose benefit it was necessary to create telegraphic criticism from the senatorial records through "sensational courtesies."

"Only there is a plan to construct two thousand wooden vessels—"wooden walls"—to transport American troops, carry supplies to Europe, to fight a war as dangerous to our civilization as was Xerxes in the days before Christ, when he invaded Greece and whipped the waters of the Hellespont with whips and hot irons to show his authority. An invader who demanded earth and water from the Grecian states as a demonstration of their submission. Just as the modern host of the allied forces has ignored all treaties—mere scraps of paper—and driven onward as did the Persian host long ago.

Has the United States government taken a lesson from that oracle at Delphi? Have they seen that in constructing these two thousand ships, the wooden walls—they are building up not only the defense of this nation, but even the wonderful merchant marine ships of the future? If so they have acted wisely, but at any rate the entry of the United States in the foreign crisis is not only the act of a free, peace-loving country, but of the whole civilized world. We are playing today the part that Athens and Sparta played centuries ago in driving back the invading host from Asia and breaking the power of the Eastern empires.

It is not a war of our own seeking, but now we are in it let us continue to the last atom of our strength and existence. Men are needed for defense and for offense. Furnish them. Furnish them to grow crops to feed the people struggling for humanity and self-government, for democracy, the fundamental principle of our government. Furnish them with these sinews. Every man, whether in active service or not, can play his individual part and let us all do so.

ENLIST FOR WAR.

According to telegraphic advices from Washington, the war department is planning to issue an order that the regular militia forces of the United States enlist: their companies to full war strength, the new recruits being enlisted for the term of the war only. This will also apply to the volunteer army of half a million men to be recruited at once to augment the militia and regular army forces.

This leaves the last excuse of the "slackers" without backing. There have been plenty of young men who have openly stated they desired to show their patriotism in case of need, but did not like the idea of the three year state guard enlistment and three years in reserve. This latest order, when issued, removes that barrier and it will be up to this class of citizens to enlist or find some other excuse.

At the present time Captain Caldwell of the Second Separate company is going ahead with his enlistment rapidly. Ordered to recruit to a hundred and five men he practically reached the hundred mark and the change in the enlistment regulations should give him his choice of other recruits at once. Thus far, with the exception of one regiment in each state, there has been no actual call for duty, except for the recruiting and the army guard squads. Now the delay in congress over appropriations is practically ended the war department will doubtless begin gathering its vast army together and the order for mobilization may come at any time.

The red tape delay at Washington over the political bickerings of congressmen has caused untold anxiety on both the war and navy departments. Both are handicapped for lack of funds or means to go ahead with mobilization plans, purchase of equipment or supplies. The navy has been forced to ask for private contributions to help them fill their ranks, and the same is practically true of the army. It is to be hoped that some of the class of politicians who are standing in the way of public progress down at Washington, will be given an opportunity to personally encounter the enemy if it ever comes to an open fight, and see what their petty selfishness has accomplished.

"The fact that a child can run it," as the automobile advertisers claim, does not prove that a grown up man can after he has had three or four sessions along the way at the road houses that are still licensed to mix alcohol and gasoline.

There is a general feeling among the scrapmen that during spring vacation the kids should sit in a cane seated chair and read improving books instead of yelling and tramping around the neighborhood.

When the boys are driven off private land they are told they must play in the street, and when they are driven off the street they are told they must play on private land.

It is surprising how quickly the crowd scatters when it is learned that the supposed foreign spies are merely the wire gang looking up pole locations for the telephone company.

The laws governing the sale of explosives seem designed to protect the right of any old fool to buy enough stuff to blow the biggest public building to atoms.

The former Danish West Indies now rejoice under the United States flag, and it is also probable that they will have to pay higher for butter, eggs, and meat.

After denouncing the government for failure to conserve resources, millions of people will again this summer let sizable back yards remain uncultivated.

Ex-President Taft has enlisted in the Connecticut Home Guard. It is safe to predict that he will have to be measured for his uniform, to the depletion of the treasury.

IN PRAISE OF THE BLUES
At times, to be sure, it is hard to be gay.
At times, to be sure, it is hard to be gay.
When prospects are blue and when fortunes are dreary.
Or when they must take the piano away.
With aches in your molars and holes in your britches.
With pills in our mail, there are times when we Ouch!
With palsy or sneezes or other diseases.
At times it's a pleasure to nurture a frown!

And then how we snap at the one with the simper.
Who comes for to cheer us and bid us be gay.
Who says, "Pray abandon the wall and the whimper.
Observe, I but seldom am ever that way!"
Regard, if you will, my commendable nature.
I'm merry and bright though I'm Misfortune obtains!

Not one other word we'd surely do murder.
And leave all his bones in the lake for his pains!
For often when woes and distempers beset us,
With much on the mind and with more on the bum,
How little it seems then will cheerfulness get us.
When all that we want is a chance to be glum.
Though some like to smile and be gay when they're wretched,
We'll wager they're out of their minds if they do.

When Fortune's unkind we are likely to find we are grumpy and Glad to be blue!

The folks that every day I meet,
The folks that I daily pass,
These faithful shoes upon my feet,
The face that in the looking-glass too oft I see, my shaving mug,
The paper on my bedroom wall,
A rubber sole, a waterplug,
These I know well and they are all familiar as the light of day.
Yet less familiar, oh by half!
Than what my neighbor likes to play upon his photograph!

How to Live Beyond Your Means
It isn't easy at first, but you'll soon get the knack of it. If you have any pride at all you will not let people see that you are earning. You can do this by adding up your bills at the end of the month, subtracting this from your monthly income, and discovering that you still have as much to spend as you did before you subtracted. Perhaps we'd better go over that again to be sure that you understand. First, add up your bills. On second thought, it will save you time to tear rather than add up the bills. And remember that no matter what sort of a car you have you should have a bigger one.

Though that might show a want of tact.

The Daily Novelette

THE DAILY NOVELETTE THE POPULARITY OF SUDD'S.

Sheerluck Bones, the great detective, descending his front steps to go to lunch, tripped over a man who was sitting on the bottom step, tumbled to the pavement and slightly bruised his wrist.

"My name is Farnum Shadwick. I own the moving picture house across the way," explained the man on the bottom step.

"What can I do for you?" inquired the great detective, rubbing his deducer.

"I want to know why the men have quit coming to my place," said Shadwick, sliding morosely off the bottom step onto the pavement. "I make a special point of pictures for men, such as 'Outwarring Vampires,' 'Tootsie or Tobacco?' 'The Worst Woman on Earth,' and so on. Yet in the past week only four men have come in, and three of those were not really men, for they left chewing gum under their seats."

"An interesting case," yawned the great detective. "And he lightened his belt and accompanied Shadwick across the way to the Grand Flickering."

After slowly examining, with his peristomoscope, every square inch of space in front of the screen, he hastily examined what lay back of the screen, and discovered that the wall separating the Grand Flickering from Sudd's saloon had been removed, and that Sudd's saloon was jammed with customers drinking beer and enjoying Shadwick's movies from the reverse side, a number of them, printers by trade, reading the words aloud as they appeared backwards on the screen.

first floor of the house. The blaze is believed to have originated under the fireplace in the living room, where a wooden post caught fire from the heat of the open grate. Before the fire was discovered it had spread under the floor of two of the rooms, necessitating the ripping up of the floor before the fire department could get at the blaze.

After removing the fireplace, a good portion of the chimney, several square feet of floor and a good part of the underpinning of the first floor, firemen were able to get the chemical fire out of the blaze. A second call brought the department to the Gage home at half past nine to

FAVOR REGULATION BY STATE OF SALE OF ALL EXPLOSIVES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS] Madison, April 13.—A bill to regulate the sale of explosives and fire arms to private parties during the war was introduced in the senate today. Persons engaged in their sale will be licensed.

The senate adopted a resolution by Bray memorializing congress for an appropriation to make the grave of General Wm. Henry Harrison, once governor of northwest territory. The assembly sixty-three to twenty-one sent to engrossment the Hart substitute prohibiting use of trading stamps in Wisconsin, and providing for enforcement of law by state, dairy and food departments. The measure prohibits the use of any trading stamps or any similar device except any manufacturer, dealer or dealer may issue any slips, ticket or check with the sale of any goods, wares or merchandise, which slip, ticket or check shall bear upon its face, a statement of value in cash, for the amount stated thereon, upon presentation of an amount aggregating twenty-five cents or over of the value of the goods, wares or merchandise, firm value and only by the persons, firm or corporation issuing the same. The bill will go into effect January 1, 1918.

The Otto bill which would regulate the use of trading stamps in the state was killed 78 to 12. The Kvam bill for $5,000 license in each county for every trading stamp concern in the state, also was killed.

By prohibiting sale of cigarettes in Wisconsin, the state affairs committee introduced a bill in the senate which would regulate the sale of cigarettes in the state.

Both houses adjourned until Monday evening.

The Spring Season Of Fashion Brings Out Many Innovations

(Written for the Gazette by Margaret Mason.)
I'm much too tired to think or write, or make typewriters go. I'm sure the spring is here—it always makes me so.
New York, April 13.—All hail the spring! The joyous season of the year when the robins and the blue birds' happiness wake you up at 5 a. m. as they burble under the window sill. These are the nights when you toss off the extra counterpane and wake in the morn with a cold in the head and an extra counterpane in your chest.
These are the days when the Amalgamated Union of Janitors turns off the steam heat prematurely and you have to lie under the counterpane on top of your customary garments around the frostbitten menage.
These are the pleasant mealtimes when you struggle with the overflowing plates of food to consume sufficient quantities of rhubarb sauce, spinach, dandelion greens and other healthful first fruits of spring against which your childish back and tummys rebel. Being offspring perhaps accounts for their being "off" spring vegetables.
These are the intoxicating afternoons when the shop windows get full of all the fascinating grills and furbelows and frivolities that go to female heads. The little birds are on the wing and the little wings are on the wing. If only the spring bonnets knew how to use their many wings they would certainly fly away a la little birds. As it is it is only their prices that soar. The feathers make them look like birds, but for almost every ruban, poke, mushroom, sailor and steeple shape that isn't headed by an aristocrat with wings. Some of them are both headed and winged at that.
Hats aren't the only things in the shop windows that go to the female heads however, as there are the stunning Spanish back combs of tortoise shell, amber, dentilamb and carved jet. Wonderfully artistic and alluring they are, and every woman is immediately bitten with a desire to

40 MILLION ACRES OF RECLAIMED LAND READY FOR SETTLERS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Washington, April 13.—Forty million acres of barren and in the west are waiting to be converted into prosperous farms, according to the reclamation service of the interior department today. Soon modern irrigation canals will dot the landscape, and the reclamation service supplied by the fund obtained by sale of public lands in semi-arid sections. Since the service was established in 1902, 1,000,000 acres of land have been reclaimed and 1,000,000 of those acres are producing crops that will help bring down the high cost of living. Homes have been established on these lands by 30,000 families, and even thriving cities and railroad centers have sprung up where barren wastes existed.
Projects now under way or completed embrace approximately 3,000,000 acres of irrigable land, divided into 60,000 farms. The investment thus far is about $100,000,000. In some cases the reclamation even controls its own reservoirs and coal mines for the people who have moved to the opened territory. At Williston, S. D., such a mine has been maintained for five years without the loss of a life. Telephone lines, light and heating plants and other public service means are likewise maintained by the government for the benefit of the settlers.

HOLLAND'S FINANCES SHAKY AT PRESENT

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
The Hague, Netherlands, April 13.—Despite her efforts to prevent it, Holland is becoming a party to the economic war between the belligerent states. Great Britain set the example of paying for its large supplies of dairy and other products in exchange bills, and when Germany demanded the same privilege, neutral Holland could not see its way to refuse, however differently it might regard Berlin's paper money. Holland has been the only country to apply the brake on this downward road that might land it in uncomfortable circumstances but, so far, apparently unsuccessfully.
While these nations demand virtually everything on credit, they require little Holland to pay for her imported goods in cash. To the extent this operates to Holland's advantage owing to the fact that the rates of exchange in Germany and Austria are depressed and Holland's purchasers consequently pay less than they would after the war when the exchange rates may have risen.
In the effort to prop up the rate of exchange in Germany and Austria, an organization for the control of exchange values has been formed. No marks or crowns, as the case may be, are permitted to be sent out. Germany and Austria unless authorized by these organizations. This means that German and Austrian buyers of Holland goods cannot pay the bills until the controlling bodies have approved the purchase. Checks drawn in payment for luxuries shipped from Holland into Germany and Austria are held up pending approval of the authorities ruling that claims arising from the imports of luxuries cannot be settled until after the war.
Trade between Holland and the Central Empires has been seriously hampered by these restrictions.

DAUGHTER RELINQUISHES RIGHT TO ONE-THIRD OF HER FATHER'S ESTATE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Milwaukee, Wis., April 13.—Mrs. Stella Kirekoff voluntarily relinquished her right to one-third of her father's estate, valued at $26,000, by destroying a will, in order that all five of his children might share alike. This unusual situation is revealed in a petition from the widow and children of Augustus S. Hanks of the town of Granville. They are Mrs. Kirekoff and Byron, Clarence, Fayette and Pisk Hanks and Mrs. Agnes Hanks. Mr. Hanks died on January 15, 1915, and left a large estate. Upon her death, one-third was to go to Stella Kirekoff and the remainder to be divided among the other children. Mrs. Kirekoff could see no reason why there should not be an equal distribution among the children, and by a legal agreement the document was burned.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN
Well along in years but hardly in appearance, an unobtrusive man may be seen daily smoking his pipe at the noon hour in the vast inner courtyard of one of the world's largest motion picture studios, a humble, brown-sparrow sort of chap among the brightly plumaged and high-priced stars of the screen who pass about him.
He is William Shea, known to the "movie fans" of two decades, and he is still playing. What is remarkable about him besides his long period of industry is the reputation he bears of being the first real-honest-to-goodness actor to desert the legitimate stage for the mimicry of the studio and screen. He is one of the best known personalities of the "pictures."
An amiable, contented fellow, he does not mind the procession has passed him and that he is back where he began, playing minor parts in productions, though at one period he was rated as a star.
THE "FOR WOMEN ONLY" SHOW
Another one of THOSE pictures is at large in New York. It is roaming around under the general caption of "Birth." It's a "For Women Only" picture. The picture is in the theatre where it is being shown are all women. The ushers are women. A woman manages it. The newspapers were asked to send only women reporters to see it.
(P. S.—It is reliably reported that the male attendance has broken all records.)
HE'S NOT FICKLE; JUST FAST.
Constance Reider has called our searching attention to her astounding feat. She has transferred her screen affections to three different beauties in three different films in as many "dit" months. Her record is from Kathlyn Williams—and he's still going.
"I wonder if he's fickle," soliloquizes Constance.
We wonder.
Let there be no further doubt as to the ultimate and complete rejection of the "For Women Only" picture. The picture has been picked up by Griffith, young, beautiful and blonde.

NEBRASKA EXPECTING 1917 BUMPER CROPS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Lincoln, Neb., April 13.—Nebraska's crop acreage this year will be the greatest in the state's history. Whether Nebraska's 1917 crop yield will depend on weather conditions. The high cost of living, for farmers consequent high prices paid for farm products is in part responsible for the increased acreage.
Only a normal wheat crop is expected. Farmers now say that the wheat is not strong and will require favorable conditions from now on to make a normal crop.
The corn acreage will be greater than last year. Where the farmers have been winterkilled the fields to corn. The high prices brought by garden produce and by such staples as beans, etc., will mean an increased acreage. It is very likely to be the potato.
One of the effects of the high cost of living which will be seen in cities and towns all over the state will be the increased acreage of garden crops. In the larger cities and towns every vacant lot stands a good chance of being used for a garden.

MINNESOTA FARMERS BUY AUTOS FOR THE CAMPAIGN

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
St. Paul, Minn., April 13.—One hundred autos were purchased by the National Non-Partisan League here today for use in what probably will be the greatest and hottest farm political campaign ever waged in Minnesota.
The cars will be delivered within a few days and with them, and many others owned by the league, each farmer will have a non-partisan league organizer, every farm in the state will be visited.
The league plans to organize the state as completely as the North Dakota farmers were organized when they captured the state last year.
By the time the next political campaign arrives the league will have as many as 60 per cent of the farmers of Minnesota, said A. C. Townley, president of the league, today.

JOHN DON'T YOU REMEMBER OUR ELLA WHEELER WILCOX MOTTO?
OH, IT'S EASY ENOUGH TO WRITE MOTTOES.
The world is getting very much more mottoed. If you are riding on a train at night, and you see a factory all lit up, you may know it is making one of two things, munitions of war—or mottoes. Whenever we go we see that "It's easy enough to be pleasant when life flows along like a song, but the man worth while is the man who can smile when everything goes dead wrong."
And there is that other well known motto about: if you smile and everybody else smiles, soon there will be miles and miles of smiles.
And "Come in without knocking and go out the same way."
And "Gentlemen will not, etc., etc., etc."
And "Don't swear here; it sounds like, etc."
A motto is all right until it gets to nagging. After we have seen a motto fifty times, it begins to be subject to the law of diminishing returns. It makes us buck. We, personally, used to give rise to some natural, spontaneous, unpremeditated, smiles—without goading or admonition. But since we can't go anywhere any more without being plucked at to smile a while or a mile, contrary reaction has set in.
So—while sweet thoughts are undoubtedly a better product than munitions of war—we think there should be some moderation in mottoes, as in everything else.

BOOST FREIGHT ON MIDDLE WEST ROADS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, April 13.—Increases in freight rates by western roads on a variety of commodities from Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Louis and other large cities in middle west to towns and cities in Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, and other middle western states, were granted in part today by the interstate commerce commission.
Increases were permitted on agricultural implements in carload quantities, on candy, grapes, holly building blocks and tiles, soda and soda products and stone in carloads.
Increases on other commodities were disapproved with exception of those on dairy products pending further investigation.

Let It Go at That.

STARTLING REPORTS COME FROM PEORIA AND SURROUNDING TOWNS ABOUT DALY THE 'STOMACH MAN'

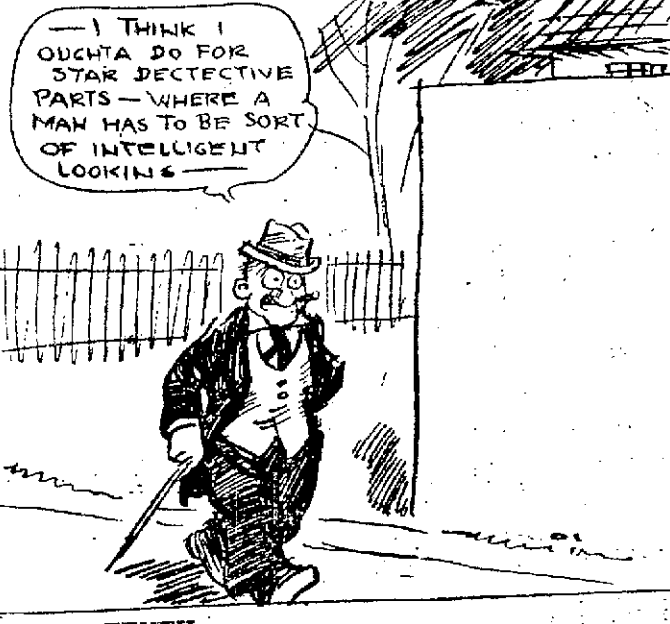

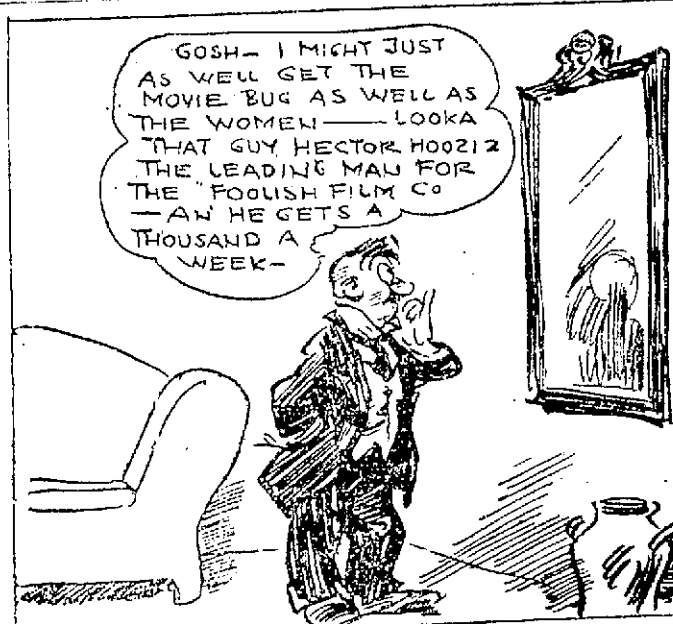

TO VISIT JANESVILLE AND GIVE FREE BAND CONCERTS, FREE VAUDEVILLE, FREE DEMONSTRATIONS NIGHTLY.

Commencing Monday Night, April 16th, ask the Druggist for the new Remedy For Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Harry E. Daly, the young man who has acquired an immense following throughout the west by his cheerfulness and medicines, will visit Janesville in speaking of his stay in this city. Daly has this to say: "I shall remain in Janesville about three weeks. I have come here more for a rest than anything else as I have been working hard in the west. However, I shall take this opportunity of introducing myself to the people of Janesville and proving to them how little sickness there would be in this city if they would guard their stomachs as they do their pocketbooks. There is sure very little the matter with the American people, other than stuffed up, over-worked digestive organs, but there is a surprising amount of the condition, and in consequence most of us are half sick part of the time. My medicine is not like the marvelous preparations we see in advertisements, that will bring the stomach regulator and tonic, but it is the best thing of the kind I know of on the market today and will make a bulky, overworked stomach get down to business in about thirty days. I will convince an awful lot of people of this before I leave the city. Daly carries a number of vaudeville people including a band and orchestra and will give a series of free entertainments starting Monday evening, at the skating rink.

OSHKOSH WALTONS FIGHT TAKING WINNEBAGO SPAWN

Oshkosh, Wis., April 13.—Oshkosh is fighting the bill introduced in the legislature by Assemblyman Hart, intended to prevent the state conservation commission from taking spawns from pike and other fishes in Lake Winnebago. It is feared the legislation would tend to cut down the open season.

In St. Louis the fans believe the Browns did not show true form until Jones' men made the great mid-summer dash, and feel the club will start in this spring where it left off last fall. Cleveland, like New York, believes only injuries beat the club out of the American pennant last year, while Boston still has implicit confidence in its twice world's champion Red Sox.

Those of single blessedness on the young ladies' side of the house gathered 1,430, while their escorts drew 2,261. Altogether it was a fine evening and very much enjoyed by all. Here are the scores.

According to statements by President Tenor and Johnson of the National and American leagues respectively, the two major leagues established new attendance records last season. Baseball interest runs just as high this spring as it did last, and there is far more interest than marked the springs of 1915 and 1916, the Federal league years, hence this should be a banner year.

In the opinion of many fans the awakened interest in baseball is directly due to the fact that the old champion club, the Chicago Cubs, Mack and John McGraw are now only memories and that in the last three seasons three different clubs won the National league pennant.

The Athletics of several years back composed the greatest team baseball has yet known, but they did more to put a damper on interest in American league ball than anything which ever hit the Johnsonian circuit. White Mack killed American league ball in Philadelphia by breaking up his great team, he revived interest in the American league.

When it was only a question as to whether the Athletics would win the pennant by ten or fifteen games, there could be little interest in New York, Cleveland or St. Louis. When one knows before a ball is pitched that the best thing he can hope for is second place he cannot arouse himself to the zenith of excitement.

This spring six clubs in the American league feel they have a chance for the pennant—New York, Chicago, Boston, Detroit, St. Louis and Cleveland, while Griffith of Washington believes he has an outside chance and Mack of the Athletics says this is the year he will come back.

The fans in New York never had the confidence in a local American league club that they have this spring. Chicago writers are telling their readers it will be a miracle if the White Sox do not come through this year. Detroit, after being thwarted twice by a few games, is now convinced that some of Jennings' young pitchers have sufficient experience to bridge over the few games which cost the club the pennant in 1916 and 1917.

Manager Bill Donovan has just about settled the makeup of the Yankees for the season of 1917. The new battle formation was brought about by shifting Lee Magee from first base for the Yankees where he has been doing understudy duty to Walter Pipp to the outfield for the regulars, and Fritz Malsb, the roving bunker of the Yankees, was disclosed at second base in place of Joe Gedeon. The other regulars are

THINKS HE'S GOING TO HIT AS OF YORE

Vic Saier.

Vic Saier, the Chicago Cubs' first baseman, at one time regarded as one of the best hitting first sackers in the league, hopes to regain the honor this season. Vic's hitting last year was far short of his earlier achievements.

practically the same as last season, with Pipp at first, Beckinbaugh at short, Baker at third and Gilhooley and High in the outfield with Magee.

Casey Stengel, after all his holding out, took a big slash in pay. He will get $3,600, which is about what he got before the Federal war boosted salaries, but President Ebbets has promised him a bonus of $400 if he hits above .310. He has to hit a lot harder than he did last year to get that.

Outfielder Billy Southworth, who refused to report to the Portland Beavers, goes to the Pittsburgh Pirates on a conditional basis. He will get a six weeks' trial. If he makes good Pittsburgh will pay for him in cash or players. If he doesn't make good he probably will quit baseball.

The accumulation of football stars by the West Point and Annapolis teams continues merrily. The latest addition to the Army roster is Walter White, who last season played end at the University of Maine. White went all through the campaign without having a substitute sent in for him or taking time out. That stamps him as a worthy addition to the West Point forces. When will the Navy now offer to counterbalance White?

BOUCK WHITE OUT OF JAIL TOMORROW; HE'S THE FLAG BURNING PASTOR

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, April 13.—Bouck White, the self-styled anti-patriot and gunnysack-pastor of the church of the social revolution, who was convicted of burning the Stars and Stripes in a melting pot with other flags here some weeks ago, will get out of jail after serving thirty days therefore, tomorrow.

In sentencing White, Judge McIntyre said he was sorry the sentence was not for thirty years. White replied that the judge had never had a more unrepentant sinner at his bar. He said the flag burning was symbolic of his "internationalism," that he was a "good citizen of the world but a poor patriot of any country."

Whether White will subscribe to the international situation or become what it has become is not known. The police, however, will watch him.
